Air Raid Shelter. Due to other commitments, the Chairman wishes to wait until after the festival before work is started on applying to English Heritage for grants along with Pastfinders

466 Men in Sheds: The group has shown interest in having a shed at the rear of the Harriet Johnson Centre. The Clerk will write to Adur Distict Council to investigate whether the lease will allow Sompting Parish Council to sub-let

Clerk

467 Centre income and Centre budget: Members viewed and discussed the Centre income and budget sheets. As members hadn't received the budget sheets before the meeting they felt they needed to view the figures before commenting. This will be reported at the July meeting. The Chair of Centre committee must report to Finance committee.

468 Health and Wellbeing: Cllr. Godley spoke about the Going Local project: Confirmation had been received that the Going Local initiative would continue from September SPC and SBL had previously agreed to fund a case worker for Sompting to be based at the HJC for 10 hours for 10 hrs per week. There will be discussion with Lancing Parish Council to determine if they are interested in a caseworker for Lancing and fund a 10 hour post- it will be more cost effective to recruit a 20 hour post.

Community Café: Cllr Godley has met with members of SBL questions were raised regarding the project . Cllr Godley will meet with Adrian Rice from Adur District Council for discussions.
